Q: Please provide a campaign statement (we ask that you please include the neighborhoods and communities that make up the district you are running for. Your statement is limited to 1,250 characters (approximately 200 words)).

A: When running for public office, it is easy to speak about what one would do once elected. There is much I want to accomplish, but my qualifications come from the work I have already done to improve the quality of life in our community. I have served as a pro-bono attorney for over a decade defending tenants who cannot afford legal representation to prevent evictions. I have been a volunteer in the public school system, and I have faced the issues plaguing our transportation system by serving as the Chair of the local Community Board's Second Avenue Subway Task Force. As a lifelong New Yorker, a parent and active community member, I have a strong grasp of the day to day issues facing residents of my district. It is my commitment to public service and our community that drives me today as I run for the State Assembly in the 73rd Assembly District. This district includes the areas of Turtle Bay, Murray Hill, Lenox Hill, Upper East Side, Carnegie Hill and Yorkville.
